

Owners welcomed

THREE key staff have joined the ownership team of South Brisbane-based Bees Needs City Realty.

Operations manager Clint Dowdell-Smith, who has been with Bees Needs for four years; Regan Lacey who joined Bees Needs in 2007 as a salesperson and, more recent addition, property management team manager Annie von Rudzinski have become joint owners with Rob and Keryn Honeycombe who established the real estate agency in 2006.

"Each of them has shown they understand great client service," Mr Honeycombe said. "They set a terrific example for their teams and we're really pleased to welcome them as joint owners in the agency."

Agency owners: Clint Dowdell-Smith, Annie von Rudzinski, Regan Lacey, Keryn and Rob Honeycombe.